:: LATE DEVELOPMENTS IN THE LOCAL SPORT WORLD

But Washington County Lads Have a Strong Record Behind.

MORGANTWON, March 4. - The perord of the Washington & Jefferson College backetball team which comes here on Saturday night of this week to close the Mountaineers season shows that of the five games played W. & J. has won three. She has lost twice, once to Pitt on Pitt's floor by the close score of 33-31 and once to Lafayette College at home by the scor of 26-24. At home she has beaten Wes Virginia 32-31, and Duquesne Univer sity 49-23, but her best performance of the whole year, also staged at home was her 3425 defeat of Geneva Col lege, last year's Western, Pa., cham

The W. & J. schedule is limited to ten games. Pitt plays at Little Wash ington tonight and on Thursday W. & J. plays at Marietta, on Friday at Wes levan and on Saturday here at Morgantown. Her final game of the year will be with Allegheny College at Washington on March 15th.

The big game here on Saturday night is attracting plenty of attention. Local fans as well as University players were fairly confident of victory in the game with Pitt, and the unexpected reverse has stirred up more interest and enthusiasm for the W. & J. conflict than would have been manifest if Pitt had been beaten. Every one here realizes that the W. & J. game will be a contest that for spirit and high class play has never been equalled here and a record crowd is as-
